Superintendent's Highlights

The District is working on continuous progress by working toward curricular reform using the Management of Change process. Public meetings have been held to involve our community in defining needed changes.

The Management of Change process will continue for the next few years.

The District received the "What Parents Want Award" as national recognition for the fourth straight year.

Construction completion of our new school, Century High, is scheduled for fall of 1999. Significant repairs and additions are being made at Highland and Pocatello High Schools.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1997-98 Goals	Progress
Facilities to provide adequate classroom space at the high school level.	Construction has begun on Century High School with completion scheduled for the fall of 1999. Attendance boundaries will be set during this year. Pat Charleton has been named the school's first principal. Renovation work will start this summer at Pocatello High and includes electrical and heating system updates. Construction of a practice gym and an expanded media center also starts this summer at Highland High.
